

WAICU Adobe Purchase Program

Program Features and Benefits

- WAICU revived the two-year Adobe Contractual Licensing Program (CLP) agreement.
- Participating members may purchase Adobe software licenses at the highest possible discount.
- No minimum purchase requirement.
- The designated reseller, Journey Education Marketing, administers the program by keeping all records, and issuing all licenses and maintenance agreements.
- The program is expanded to allow student purchases through an e-commerce site customized for each participating member college/university.
- The Adobe Student CLP allows individual students currently attending a WAICU member college or university to purchase Adobe software at a substantial cost savings.
- Journey Education Marketing administers student transactions, including eligibility, verification, billing and shipping, and customer service.
