

CollegeSource On-Line

Program Features and Benefits

- A virtual library representing over 32,000 college catalogs in complete, original format for 2-year, 4-year, graduate, professional, and international schools.
- Provides a search feature and a profile of every accredited college in the United States.
- These publications may be used by a variety of campus departments such as admissions, counseling, etc.
- CSI provides reporting on usage statistics.
- Core group of members use this service to compare courses from other colleges.
- CollegeSource Online is a resource chosen by the WAICU Library Directors Group.
- By aggregating the number of users within the WAICU membership and Milwaukee Public Libraries, the cost for accessing these publications for most members is approximately half of the cost for non-consortium purchases.
