

WAICU Statistical Package for the Social Sciences (SPSS) Program

Program Features and Benefits

- SPSS is a modular, full-featured software product line for planning, data collecting, data management, analysis, reporting, and deployment.
- Using SPSS generates decision-making information quickly using powerful statistics.
- Faculty and staff can effectively present their results with high-quality tabular and graphical output, and share them with others using a variety of reporting methods, including secure Web publishing.
- WAICU negotiated an SPSS enterprise license by combining the FTEs of all participating members to obtain unlimited use of SPSS Base plus the add-on modules.
- Unlimited distribution of the software allows faculty use rights at home.
- Software is shipped directly to the college's designated ship to address.
- Members are provided direct access to SPSS educational opportunities.
