

WAICU Long Distance Telecommunications Program

Program Features and Benefits

- Opportunity for WAICU members to select AT&T to provide long distance service at a substantially discounted price.
- Under a consortium agreement, AT&T agreed to provide long distance service supported by exceptional customer service and billing services as required by a Request for Information issued by WAICU.
- An Advisory Task Force assisted in the vendor selection process.
- To be eligible for the exceptional WAICU long distance rates offered by AT&T, member colleges must purchase a portion of their local service from AT&T.
- Current AT&T customers are immediately eligible to receive the special long distance rates achieved by the WAICU consortium.
- Colleges who are not current customers of AT&T local service may obtain the special long distance rates if it agrees to purchase A&T local services at the completion of the current local service contract.
