

Benjamin Rieth
Director of Student Affairs and DEI
Bellin College

Benjamin Rieth (he/him/his) is currently the Director of Student Affairs and DEI at Bellin College. He graduated from St. Norbert College with a bachelor's degree in Music Liberal Arts and a minor in Leadership Studies and received his Master of Education in Educational Policy and Leadership from Marquette University. Benny is an enrolled member of the Bad River Band of the Lake Superior Chippewa Nation and a descendant of the Menominee Nation. Benny is currently pursuing his Doctor of Education in Educational Leadership, with an emphasis in Equity, at New England College in Henniker, New Hampshire where he is researching students' sense of belonging and space while using an Indigenous paradigm and Indigenous research methods.