

Catherine Jorgens

University Counsel
Carroll University

Catherine Jorgens is a 1998 graduate of the University of Wisconsin School of Law. Her practice has focused on providing counsel to non-profit and service organizations. She has been University Counsel at Carroll University for fifteen years, overseeing the University's legal, compliance, risk management and human resource functions. Prior to joining Carroll, Ms. Jorgens was a member of the litigation department at a large Milwaukee-area law firm. Ms. Jorgens supports a number of initiatives that provide pro bono legal services, including the Marquette University Volunteer Legal Clinic and the Milwaukee Bar Associations Pro Bono affinity group. Ms. Jorgens is active in the Waukesha community, serving on the Park Foundation and the City of Waukesha Police and Fire Commission.
