

Biography

Tom Infurna Jr.

Vice President

Current Responsibilities

Tom Infurna is a Vice President in Marsh's Cyber Practice, serving as an Advisor and Placement Specialist for middle market corporate clients across the United States. Based in Marsh's New York office, Tom is responsible for assisting clients with risk identification and risk transfer for Cyber and Professional Liability risks. Tom also serves as an Education Industry Specialist within the Cyber Practice.

Experience

Tom joined Marsh in 2020. Prior to Marsh, Tom began his career in the Insurance & Risk Management industry with a New York regional broker in 2019. Tom was responsible for maintaining client relationships as well as day to day account management for middle market and small business clients in a variety of industries. His focus was supporting the placement of Professional Liability, Management Liability, and Cyber insurance programs.

Education

- BS in Business Administration, Fordham University

Affiliations

- Member, Professional Liability Underwriting Society